

INDONESIA (cumulative total 48 cases, of which 36 fatalities) - update as of 5/31/06 - investigated WHO cases with more details

Patient Age Status Suspected Source of Infection Symptoms Hospitalized Death

NORTH SUMATRA - Kubu Simbelang Village, Karo District Family Cluster, (7cases, 6 fatalities)

		deceased - no specimen prior to burial for H5N1 confirmation testing	3 of her backyard chickens died, she kept them indoors at night	24-Apr	2-May	4-May Index woman	37
her son	15	deceased	spent night with sick index patient April 29	~5-May		9-May her second son	17	deceased	spent night with sick index patient April 29	~5-May		12-May her visiting brother	25	surviving	spent night with sick index patient April 29	~5-May her sister	28	deceased	took personal care of sick index patient (neighboring house)			10-May her sister's baby	18 month	deceased	took personal care of sick index patient (neighboring house)			14-May son of second brother	10	deceased	often visited index patient and was there April 29			13-May second brother	32	deceased	took care of sick son in hospital May 9-13	15-May		22-May

NOTE: 54 surviving family members still under home quarantine, surveillance in 400 households, close monitoring to undergo until ~ June 13
No evidence of genetic reassortment with human or pig influenza viruses nor significant mutations. No mutations for increased resistance to Tamiflu WHO pandemic alert phase remains at 3 (i.e. very limited human to human transmission) and will not be raised to phase 4 (increased human to human transmission) because hospital workers and community are not getting infected.

WEST SUMATRA (1 case, 0 fatality) girl	15	hospitalized	under investigation	17-May

------	----	--------------	---------------------	--------	--	--

WEST JAKARTA (1 case, 1 fatality) man	39	deceased	cleaned pigeon feces from blocked roof gutters	9-May	16-May	19-May

-----	----	----------	--	-------	--------	--------

SOUTH JAKARTA (1 case, 0 fatality) man	43	recovered	under investigation	6-May

-----	----	-----------	---------------------	-------	--	--

WEST JAVA (2 cases, 2 fatalities) - shared exposure to infection not human to human transmission

girl	10	deceased	contact with sick/dying chickens at home in week prior to onset	16-May	22-May	23-May her brother	18	deceased	contact with sick/dying chickens at home in week prior to onset	16-May	22-May	23-May

EAST JAVA (1 case, 0 fatality) man	18	recovering	dead chickens in home in week prior to onset	6-May	17-May

-----	----	------------	--	-------	--------	--