

Congressman Michael C. Burgess, M.D.
Congressional Washington D.C. Internship Program
Application Form 2020

Program Description:

Congressman Burgess’ internship program was established to provide students an in-depth look at the American political process by working closely with Congressional staff. The program’s objective is to provide students with insights into the policy-making process and public life by providing an opportunity to interact with constituents, conduct tours of the U.S. Capitol building, attend briefings about legislative issues, and more. During the internship, students will refine their career interests, develop leadership skills and gain an insider understanding of American politics.

Along with the application on the following page, please include the following:

- In an essay, please explain why you are interested in a Washington DC internship; how it will enhance your education or career goals; and the issues or policy areas that interest you. This essay should be typed, double-spaced and 1,000 words or less.
- Resume
- Official or unofficial college transcript
- No more than two letters of recommendation
