

Dr. Burgess Weekly Address November 10, 2017 Veterans Day

Hello, this is your Congressman Michael Burgess.

Each November, we honor the sacrifice and service of the many veterans who have served our country. In Texas alone, we have more than 1.5 million veterans living among us as our friends and neighbors. These are men and women who have defended our values of liberty, justice, and self-determination.

Our troops have laid their lives on the line to protect our freedom and they deserve all the respect and care our nation has to offer. We are indebted to them.

Last weekend, President Trump addressed American troops deployed to Japan. He told them, “You are the greatest hope for people who desire to live in freedom and harmony, and you are the greatest threat to tyrants and dictators who seek to prey on the innocent.”

I agree with our Commander-in-Chief. It is our veterans’ sacrifice and service that exemplify the best of America.

This Veterans Day and throughout the year, please join me in thanking the veterans in your family, the veterans in your workplace, and the many veterans in North Texas and around the country for their committed service.

As always, I appreciate your comments and your concerns on this issue or any other issue. May God bless you and your family, may God bless our veterans, and as the song says, God bless you Texas
